

Lewes and District Bar Billiards League - Rules

Playing Conditions / Rules of Play

Rules 1 - 34 have been deleted.

All games must now be played according to the Playing Conditions and Rules of Play of the All England Bar Billiards Association. A copy of the latest AEBBA rules will be maintained on the LDBBA website.

Note: Any dispute must be referred to the League Secretary in writing within three days of the point of dispute if either Captain cannot agree. Any decision made by the committee will be final and binding.

35 Match Rules

- i Each team shall consist of 5 players; a draw to be made before the start of the match to decide order of play. Should a team have less than this amount of players then blank cards should be inserted as appropriate. The home team shall have the second and fourth break with the away team having first, third and fifth break - home team to supply table fee
- ii The number of players a team may register is unlimited, but new players must be notified to the League Secretary no later than midnight on the day before playing for a team. Similar notice is required before any player may transfer from one team to another. No registration/transfers shall be accepted after the first half of the season has been completed unless specifically authorised by the committee. Players may only play in the team for which they are registered. No player having played in a team competition may play for another team in that competition. No player may play more than one game in any team match. Any team which plays an unregistered player shall have one point deducted from their score on each occasion this happens. Should that player win his/her game, the point for the win shall automatically be awarded to the opposition
- iii Any pub/club entering two teams or more in the League may have floating reserves who must be registered as such. At least six players must be signed on for each team. A reserve may not play for any team more than twice in one half of the season. If he/she does, then he/she shall be deemed a registered player of that team and may not play for the other team for the rest of that season
- iv All players should arrive by 8.30pm. The first game must commence by 8.40pm, thereafter play to be continuous. In the event of the match not being started by 8.40pm, then all games incomplete or unplayed by 15 minutes prior to closing time shall be automatically awarded to the opposing team
- v If any team commences with one or more players short, and cannot provide a replacement(s) by the time the fourth game has started, (~~the point(s) shall be awarded to the opposing team, and no player may play more than one game in any match....deleted~~) A four player rule will be put in place as follows, one of the four players present will be drawn at random and will not receive the break unless both teams have four players in which case the away team player will receive the break, leg points will be awarded as normal but the score of the 4 player rule member will not count towards player stats. Each captain must record which game is part of a 4 player rule so that the results secretary is able to record the correct information. The 4 player rule can only be used once per match, if additional players are unavailable then a walkover will be called and recorded on the scorecard as normal.

Lewes and District Bar Billiards League - Rules

- vi ~~No coaching of players is allowed during actual play~~ (now covered by All England rules)

Lewes and District Bar Billiards League - Rules

- vii Match results must be notified to the League within 48 hours, i.e. before midnight on the second day following the match date. The captains of both teams are equally responsible for notifying the result, using one of the methods approved by the committee. Details of notification methods, along with relevant telephone numbers and email/website addresses, will be distributed to teams at the beginning of the season. Any postponements or changes of date must likewise be notified to the results secretary within 48 hours. If neither team submits a result within the allotted period, except in exceptional circumstances approved by the committee, the match shall be recorded as a 0-0 score and no points shall accrue to either team
- viii All league games are to be played on the date given in the fixture list. If, for any reason, the game cannot be played on the due date, the Captain of the responsible team shall contact his/her opposite number direct and try to reach an agreement for the fixture to be completed. Rearranged games should be completed with 28 days of the original date of the fixture or before finals night, whichever be the sooner. Both Captains shall be responsible for notifying the Results Secretary within 3 days of the arrangements. If the two Captains are unable to reach an agreement, then both Captains must contact the Results Secretary within 3 days, who will report the facts to the Management Committee for their decision. A team failing to notify their opponents of a cancellation shall forfeit the match which will be awarded to their opponents 5-0
- ix When a Club has more than one table in use, only one of these tables may be used in any one match and the choice of table shall be that of the home Captain
- x Unless otherwise mutually arranged, each team shall play home and away matches with each other team. At the end of the season, the team having the most points shall be declared the winner. Points will be awarded as follows - one point per player for a win, and ½ point per player for a draw
- xi In the event of two or more teams finishing level on points, the team having the most won matches to their credit shall be declared the winner. Should the teams still remain level, the position shall be resolved by a replay on a neutral table to be nominated by the Management Committee. In the event of a team withdrawing from the League before the season has been completed, all league results pertaining to that team shall be expunged from the League Table
- xii The Highest Break cup is awarded to the player making the highest break on an away table in a league match. No competition games are eligible for the award
- xiii The Player of the Year cup shall be awarded to the player with the highest number of League wins during the season. In the event of a tie, the lowest number of losses shall decide the competition, and if there is still a tie, the highest average score will decide.
- xiv Players are expected to conduct themselves in a gentlemanly manner at all times. Discourteous/disruptive behaviour reported to the Committee may result in the outcome of the game been overturned.

Lewes and District Bar Billiards League - Rules

36 Additional Rules for Competitions

- i Individual competitions will be the best of three games, the player who wins the toss has the choice of breaking first or second, in the event of the third game, both the players will have the break, the balls being respotted after the first break. Players will toss again for choice of break. In the event of the games still being level, a fourth game will have to be played in the same manner as the third.
- ii In a doubles match, only one player from each pair shall have the break in each game; players who take the break in the first or second game shall NOT take the break in the third game. This does not affect the Mixed Doubles; in this competition, the lady player must take the first turn for their pair in every game.
- iii In team competitions the Captains shall toss a coin; winners shall have the break in the second and fourth games and the losers in the first and third games. In the fifth game both players will have the break, and will toss a coin for choice of break. In the event of a draw, the Captains will have nominated a player before the match starts who will play a sixth game; rules as for the fifth game.
- iv All competition games will be played on neutral tables as nominated by the Committee.
- v No player, having played in any team competition, will be allowed to play for another team in the same competition.
- vi Players may only play in a competition under the name of the team for which they are registered.
- vii In any doubles competition, should there be only one player available, the match can still proceed. However, the single player will only have one shot to his/her opponents two.
- viii In all even break games, if the second break player is still on their first break when the bar drops the player shall be entitled to insert extra coins in an attempt to equal or exceed the first break player's opening break. If the first break player is still on the table when the bar drops or has played the table out during the opening break, the second break player shall be entitled to insert extra coins in an attempt to equal or exceed the first break player's opening break.
- ix On receiving notification of individual or team competitions entrants are responsible for arranging matches promptly. Both parties are equally responsible; not just the first named. In case of difficulty contacting the opponent, entrants should first contact the appropriate coordinator. If no satisfactory contact has been made the competitions secretary will be notified immediately, and in any event within two weeks of the published draw date, for an agreement to be reached.

Lewes and District Bar Billiards League - Rules

- x All players who fail to play their matches or submit their result to the Competitions Secretary by the closing dates specified will be automatically disqualified from the competition.
- xi All results to be submitted to the Competitions Secretary by email, phone or text.

37 Sprackling Cup

This trophy shall be awarded for a knockout competition for team champions. Each Team shall be entitled to nominate one representative, whose name must be submitted to the Competitions Secretary by the closing date specified by the committee. Any team failing to submit the name of their representative by the specified date will forfeit their right to enter the competition.

38 Captains' Cup

- i The Captains' Cup shall be played during the season on a date and at a venue decided by the committee
- ii This will be a knockout competition between all team captains, as registered at the start of the season
- iii The format of the competition shall be determined by the committee and published in advance of the competition.